WEATHER PROBABILITIES. - War Depart ment, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., Aug. 28, 1877-10:30 a. m.-For the Middle States stationery followed by falling barometer, south and east winds, slightly warmer, and clear or partly cloudy weather.

a Central Club of the so-called Workingmen's Party was held at the Sun engine house last night. The notice of the meeting had been carefully kept out of the papers, and those whose company was desired were notified privately. This action, and the fixing of the time of meeting at the same hour as that of the radical meetings, was, it is supposed, done to get rid of the "colored brethren," not one of whom was present. The meeting was called to order by J. J. Heishley, chairman of the Executive Committee, and T. S. Hawshurst was appointed Sec-

At the time of assembling there were just nincteen persons present, by actual count, fully one-half of whom were spectators. Os motion of John Hawkhurst the present chairman was authorized to set until the elec tion of permanent officers. On motion of J. W. Greene a committee of three was appointed to make arrangements for an out door meeting at some future time, to organize a club. Committee-J.J. Heishley, Jao. Hawkhurst, and Wm. T. Dobie. John Hawkhurst favored starting the club now, and suggested that all who desired to join come forward and sign their names to the platform, which motion was carried, but Mr. Wm. C. Markell was the only one who went forward.

Mr. L. Harrison Kell here arose and wanted to know who were the workingmen?

The chairman said those controling the party did not propose to draw that line. He thought that every man was a workingman except the bondholder. John Hawxhurst arose to answer, but was in the Second Ward. Being informed, however, that this was a general meeting, Mr. Kell said that he had misunderstood it and was satisfied. Mr. Kell preceded, saying that he understood it had been stated on the street that he was a loafer, years in the Confederate army fighting such men as John Hawxhurst, when, if he had been home he would have learned a trade. Only a few years ago Mr. Hawxhurst wanted to give the negroes forty acres and a mule, and now undertock to come in and teach the people

John Hawxhurst said that he would give his idea as to who was a workingman. He thought that anyone deserved that name, who, by his brain or hands produced anything for the use of man for a compensation. Among these he did not include the bondholders. He made a comparison of different classes of animals as producers and non producers. L. H. Kell did not want to be compared with animals, he was not one of that kind. Wm. T. Dobie thought that Mr. Kell was entirely out of order, and moved to proceed wit usiness. . II. Kell inquired if Mr. Dobie was out for when he sat in the conservative con which nominated Messis. Hunter and Mushbach. (Applause from the outsiders) 'ved to proceed to business, but it was resorted, the chairman suggested none blink offer Reson might give them a that Mr. J. W. Ctoone might give them a speech, as he was the only one sufficiently in-tormed on the objects of their organization to

J. W. Greene thereupon commenced and made a speech, the delivery of which occupied nearly an hour and a half. "to audience, which had dwindled down to about a dezen, became very tired and gapes and yan'qs were

About 10 o'clock Mr. Greene got through and John Themas Audley took the floor to reply. lie said that Mr. Greene had not touched the real subject, which was State polities, at all. At tempting to proceed with his reply, he was interrupted by calls to "sit down" and motions to

END OF THE STRIKE. - It was mentioned in vesterday's Gazette, that in order to facilitate shipments of coal, the American Coal Company had agreed to pay its laborers an advance of sug 27-lw S. WATERMAN & SON live cents per boat, provided that was the ruling price in Georgetown. It was ascertained yes. THE FIRM OF L. GENZBERGER & SON terday evening that the men in Georgetown were working at the old prices without cou. plaint. Accordingly, when the hour for commencing work arrived this morning, Mr. J. 111 Parrott, Jr., the agent of the American Company, called his men together and told them that they would be paid only the old rate of forty cents per boat, and that if they refused to work at that rate, the vessels here would be sent to Georgetown to be loaded. The laborers, finding the agent firm in his determination, went to work as once.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE .- About the same number of teachers and others, nearly fifty, attended as did yesterday.

At 10:15 a. m. Wm. F. Carne, esq., delivered a very able and instructive lecture on "The Book of the Future, printed without Type, in which he gave an account of the various inventions and processes for reproducing letters, and, after speaking of the writers of the middle ages and their beautiful manuscripts, and how they had given place to the printer, advanced the opinion that this latter individual would, in his turn, be superseded,

The Superintendent then continued his lee ture of yesterday on "The Word Method," further elucidating it and extending his remarks to teaching the use of words.

After regretting that the absence of those he told by Kell to shut up, as he did not belong a sort of "lamily pienic," he stated the arrangements for the examination of teachers, which will begin at 9 s. m. to morrow.

Several grammatical questions, propounded by different toachers, were then briefly discuss ed, and, after a vote of thanks to the Superin-&c. Why had he loafed? Because he was four | tendent and other lecturers, the Institute adjourned.

> THE CANAL.—The Cumberland News of yesterday says:

> "Forty three boats, carrying nearly five thousand tons of coal, cleared from this port by canal Saturday. This was the heaviest day's business of the season, but there is every prosday this week. The New Central Company, who have not been doing much canal business, commence te-lay with ten boats, or over 1,100 tons daily. The Hampshire and Baltimore Company will probably commence canal shipments next Saturday or Monday.'

The Alleganian says that 198 boats carrying 22,631 tons of coal left that port last week.

SAD BEREAVEMENT .- The Danville News, in noticing the death of the daughter of Mr. Robert Jamieson, formerly of this city, says It pains us deeply to notice the death of little Rebecca, the daughter of our esteemed fellow-citien, Robert Jamieson, Esq, which occurred at the residence of her parents, at six o' clock yesterday morning. She was sick but a few days and died of diphtheria. She was an exceedingly bright and intelligent child of about six sum mers, having attained childhood's most interesting age. She was a rember of the Presbyterian Sunday School, to which she was devoted—the life of the household and joy of the hearts of her parents. Mostly heartily does the whole community sympathize with them in their affliction.

ADJUSTMENT OF THE CITY DEBT. - The address and plan of adjustment of the Corporation debt, which has been forwarded to the holders of the city bonds, is, it is understood, meeting with a very favorable reception on all hards, and will no doubt be successfully accomplished. ALEXANDRIAN IN TROUBLE .- The Wash Amidst some confusion a motion to adjourn ington Republican says :- "James Rooney, an Alexandrian, was arrested Sunday afternoon for trespassing on the grounds of the Howard University. He was tried in the Police Court yesterday morning and pleaded guilty to the charge, at the same time pleading ignorance of the law, but the judge would not accept ignorance as an excuse, and Rooney went to jail for thirty days and Lilly & May. in default of $5 fine.'

The U. S. ship Guard, Commander Green, [SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.] WASHINGTON, Aug. 28-2 p. m.-The Presi dent will leave next week on another pleasure tour through the West. Mr. Key, the "repentaut Southern representative of the Administratary McCeary, it is thought, will supply his place, as he is to oppose Allison for the Senate torship over Allison, whom, they say, has to move against a very strong opposition enrrent. Mr. Sherman says his speech at Mansfield will do much good towards harmonizing the disaffection that has heretofore been existing smoog buckeye republicans. The sudden advent in this city of Madison Wells and Anderson, of the Louisiana returning board, has given rise to much talk and speculation among the knowing ones around the hotel corridors and curbstones. It is thought by a well informed attorney from New Orleans that sufficient evidence will be obtained to indict ex-Gov. Kellogg, of La., for being implicated in the frauds committed upon the State treasury while he was Governor. There is a deficiency of about eighty thousand dollars, which has been traced to the tax collector, treasurer and Governor. Twenty-one thousand have been replaced by the collector, who says the other parties are responsible for the remainder.

The meeting in this city last week of promi nent Southern and Western democrats is thought to have some relation to the organiza tion of the next House. Congressmen A. M Scales, of North Carolina, and John Goode, of Va., were discussed as being the most available and strongest for Speaker from the South, whilst John II. House claimed to have the Tennessee delegation pledged to him for the same position. From the present outlook it seems that were the South and West to combine on the Speak er the chances for either Morrison, Sayler, Goode or Scales would be excellent; whilst on the other hand Mr. Randall's friends feel sure of his success on the first ballot.

The President will not change the time of calling Congress together from the 15th of October. He expresses himself as being firm on this point.

A dispatch here says that Gen. Ord has been informed by the Mexican commander on the opposite side of the Rio Grande that two of the raiders on the jail at Rio Grande city are amen able to the extradition treaty and will be delivered to him.

The Internal Revenue Department has information that while deputy collector Doolittle and party were engaged in breaking up illieit distilleries in Mercer county, West V., they were bushwacked and the deputy collector badly wounded.

The Governor of Texas has informed General Ord he has never authorized Texa: volunteers to cross into Mexico after marauders. His instructions to the State troops were to confine operations to the Texas side, and that escaping marauders must be extradited.

Lebanon Farmers' Club.

The annual meeting of the Lebanon Farm ers' Club of Fairfax county, Va., was held yesterday at Mason's Hill. These annual meetings are always largely attended, and take the form of a pienic in the woods during the day and a ball at some of the neighboring farms at night, and this was no exception to the rule. After the meeting of the club addresses were made by Gen. Fitzbugh Lee and Mr. Moran, who spoke mainly of the crops in that section, and gave the farmers some good advice as to their disposition. Afterwards Dr. Culver, of Washington, was introduced, who, in his usual manner, delivered a political harangue, which was entirely out of place, as those present had assembled merely for pleasure and not to talk

The day was passed quietly and pleasantly, and at night the belles and bean of Fairfax county enjoyed themselves in the mazy dance till the wee sma' hours. There were a number of Washingtonians present, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Pullman, Miss Studds, Misses Julia, Fanny and Jennie Atkinson, Misses Mamie and Sadie White, Miss Florence Higdon; also Mrs. Carver and Miss Tillie Graham. of Fairfax Court House; Miss Addie Miller, of Linconia, Misses Jennie and Carrie Townsend, and Miss "Ben" Crump, of Carlin Springs .-Washington Republican 25th.

Editor Washington Republican: My attention was called to a report in your paper in your issue of yesterday morning, of the proceedings of the Lebanon Farmers' Club, held at Mason's Hill, Fairfax county, Virginia, on Thursday, and the gross injustice which the report does me, calls for a brief statement of the facts at my hands with a reference to the true tenor of my remarks. I do this, too, in justice to the President of the Lebanon Farmers' Club, who gave me the invitation to ad dress the club and others present. Your reporter, after giving the subjects of the very able address of Gen. W. II. F. Lee and Dr. Mason, says: "Afterwards Dr. Culver, of Washington was introduced, who, in his usual manner delivered a political harangue, which was entirely out of place, as those present had assembled merely for pleasure and not to talk politics." Now, the facts are that, in order to give diversity to the subjects discussed, and their relations to the great agricultural and labor interests of the country, I took as my theme the tariffs and their bearings upon agriculture, and closing with an allusion to our existing policy of national finances and its effects upon the price of farm products. I said not one word upon party politics, nor in any way alluded. directly or indirectly, to parties or partisans, so in water. Fifty cent box sufficient for two acres that I will charitably infer that your reporter was not present to have heard my remarks, or if present could not fathom them and their bearings, or too prejudiced to me personally to report me correctly-probably the latter. C. P. CULVER. Yours truly, A correct account of the meeting referred to has been heretofore published in the Gazette.
